

...Camp Zama Youth Center Presents...

TEEN'S GUIDE TO ORDERING FOOD IN JAPANESE

Have you ever ordered something that you thought was one thing, but it ended up being something completely different? Like asking for a juicy steak, but getting squid instead? Join us at the Youth Center to learn how to order food in Japanese. So the next time you go out to eat off-post with your friends and family, you won't end up with something you don't want like: raw fish or live octopuses.

February 20th, 2008

1515

For more information, call 263-4500